They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn
At the going down of the sun, and in the morning
We will remember them

ALL: WE WILL REMEMBER THEM

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.... PLEASE ALL JOIN IN

WAR

Standing, just standing took effort
In the trenches always muddy and wet,
Dark, the nights are black and dark
Very, very, dark

Did you see the spark – in the dark
Then the flare, look, see, over there
Thunder of the guns, so many guns
Artillery guns, ours and theirs
And still, quite still, more flares
Shaking feet, feet so wet, and yet

The calm, awaiting the enemy in the wet.
Sunshine, birdsong, laughter, long gone

Oh to be kind, to share the cup of peace, to smile awhile
As all the guns rise in a giant scrap pile and war too
And all the crosses – row on row – finally cease!
